Mindy -

I need to hear back from you right away on what the dangers are that your obviously mandatory postings refer to.

I am asking you directly, and I expect a direct and thorough response either from you or from someone whom you may designate to reply.

As you have been told repeatedly, Dave is NOT our attorney in this remediation affair and it therefore does no good and is not a legitimate response for you to write to him in reply to our concerns. As Dave is not our attorney in regard to this matter, I may or may not happen to hear from him regarding your communications. And when I do, it can be up to several days later. It is clear that you wish to continue to imagine him as representing us, and you are, of course, free to imagine whatever you like, but the fact is that it is not true.

Please respond to our questions regarding the implied dangers that your actions have placed us in. We are currently speaking with others who may be interested in utilizing some or all of our space for their activities, and we MUST have a clear understanding of the reality of the situation that you have created here that we may share with them. We are keeping close records, and if we do end up losing potential income as a result of your refusal or slowness to respond, I can assure you that you will, having created an apparently dangerous situation with neither an explanation nor our consent, be held personally responsible for it. At this particular point, again, time is of the essence.

Thank you -

Aaron Smith
